Key Comparisons & Trends Loan vs Deposit: Loans (4.38bn) exceed deposits (3.77bn), suggesting an aggressive lending strategy. Business Lending: Makes up a major part of loans (2.60bn, ~60%), highlighting reliance on corporate clients. Gender Split: Both deposits and loans show balanced distribution between Male and Female clients. Yearly Trend (2013–2021): Steady growth in both deposits and loans, with stronger acceleration in lending in recent years.
Insights & Recommendations 1. Deposit Growth Opportunity: Strengthen savings account acquisition to balance the loan-deposit ratio. 2. Risk Monitoring: High reliance on business lending may pose concentration risks; diversification is advised. 3. Mid-Income Segment Focus: Since they dominate both deposits and loans, targeted products for this segment can drive future growth. 4. Private Bank Clients: Key growth driver for both deposits and loans; prioritize premium client retention strategies.
